CLASS HISTORY

A New Beginning . . .

We are the class of 1983. We are a group of individuals who have grown, laughed, cried, and endured together. As we journey towards a "new beginning", we would like to reflect on our past three years at Roy C. Ketcham.

September 6, 1980, we entered Ketcham as sophomores . . . scared, and lost, but most of all, anxiously anticipating what our high school years were to bring. With no money in our treasury, our first officers were faced with a tough situation. After various fund raisers, some successful, some not, we proved we were a class who wouldn't give up.

As juniors, we received the coveted class ring. With much excitement, we roamed the halls searching for that "83rd" turn. Successful fund raisers consisted of selling Christmas ornaments, cider, and the traditional concession stand at the home basketball games. On March 27, 1982, after much preparation (and a lot of fun) we succeeded in turning the RCK gym into an "Evening in the Park". This, our Junior Prom, became one of our most cherished memories.

September of '82 rolled around rather quickly and we were now entering Ketcham for our final year. We elected our officers and began planning Homecoming. Homecoming proved to be a worthwhile venture — about 200 people came and danced to the music of Spiral. Money from the dance along with the sale of Valentine-O-Grams in February helped to further fund class activities.

December brought the senior play. Thanks to a generous donation from Peter Frampton, we were well on our way to a fantastic production of the musical Grease.

During Easter vacation, the seniors traveled to the "Sunshine State" for five days and four nights of "fun in the sun". We were the first class to view the newly built EPCOT center.

May 27, 1983, brought the grand finale of our senior year, the Senior Prom. The theme song was "Up Where We Belong" and the setting was Meadowbrook Lodge. Then came the time for us to say our last farewells. Graduation had arrived — we made it! The joys and sorrows were behind us and it was time to look towards our futures.

Best of luck to you all, the graduating class of 1983.

"Munchkin"

"Sad Goodbye's" It's so sad to see you go, all these years we've known each other, but we knew the time had to come when we all would have to say "Goodbye". We had so much fun . . . talking in classes . . . sharing lockers . . . shouting in the halls. We all dreaded this day, and now that it's here, it has to end. But it doesn't have to end. We'll all keep in touch, through phone calls and letters, telegrams and messages. Until that day finally comes, when we all can be together . . . again.

To the rest of my friends I will happiness and joy, to my enemy's, death and destruction, and my waterbed goes to Col. Oh, yea, I think I deserve a '65 Convertible Vette.*

I, Gregg, will Mr. McGivney as many snow storms as he can handle.

I, Alan Gordon, will M.L. topsiders, alligator shirts and lots of laughs; K.W., nothing — he has it all; R.T., all my bad jokes and ROWE RUTLEDGE: A.L., Bubble popping at the New York Experience and always a "Hello"; S.K., a squirt gun fight; P.P. and F.S., some tennis ability and another game someday; J.N., Mrs. Schwermann; A.W., a cosmos starting position; M.P., all my new card games; T.G., a Senator's job; M.S., my sarcasm; A.L., a new volleyball coach; and to all my friends love and good luck.

I, T.G., will S.D. all the great times we've shared together. I, T.G., will S.D. the fantastic time we had in Washington and an everlasting friendship. To Lisa, Tracy wills the great friendship we've had all these years and all the great times we've had. I, T.G., wills Lisa an "EAT AT JOE'S" and a big red bag to hit people with. I, Tracy, will Lynne a big "Hmm, Ms. DiBerto." I, Tracy, will Lynne the time at your surprise birthday party and the expression on your face when we told you Laurie was stuck in a ditch. I, T.G., will L.D. an everlasting friendship. I, T.J.G., will Muchkin all our fifth period talks and all the great times we've had. I, T.G., will J.G., one hundred boys when you go to college. I, Grecco, will Melius all the fun times in Madame Weber's class and "Chrome-dome's" class. I, Teresa Grecco, will Mrs. Marchell all my love and a big thank you. I, Tracy, will Rich B. all the fun times we've had, the triangle you got yourself into, and a friend forever.

I, Sam Greco, will my chopper to Ben Thompson only if he promises to get rid of that Jap Bike. All 243 of my albums to Jason Stone (not to be used for frisbees). And to Kelly McGuilton a big spaghetti dinner.

I, Janet wills Mush another fun (?) ride in a N.Y.C. elevator, another bike ride to "Capt. Eddies" and Corbys, Eddie, and all our creative (?) songs and poems. I, Slink, will Jul. a bigger front seat and Ken. I leave Bill memories, to S.H., I will "new material". I will Sar. stars and a car that runs. To the friends I leave behind I will a great life and my love. Audrey and Mush, "Do it up for the Marines!!"

I, Holly leaves Stephen one romantic evening with no commercial interruptions. You're very special to me, I always want to make you smile. To Carla, Holly leaves a guy with no girlfriend, where are they!?! I, H.G., also leave Carla B.C., J.T., D.T., B.M., and S.K., that was one GREAT weekend! To my mom I leave the I love you I never said because I didn't think you were listening, but you were. To Chrissy, Holly leaves many more 1st letters from Mike, I think you've found it.

I, C.C. will K.W. a whoose-ting, a 's up, and a night of hiding behing a three during our J.V. commando missions. I will J.B. and J.R. all the guzzling buddy good times to come and a cork for the times an egg is not appropriate. I will J.F. all the flared nostril, hol-lay's and double chins he could make. Lastly I will my bro' Peep a good crop of females to worship during one of his neverending breaking sessions.

Look to this day
for it is life,
The very life of life.
In its brief course lie all
The realities and truths
of existence,
The joy of growth
The splendor of action
The glory of power.

For yesterday is but a memory
And tomorrow is only a vision
But today, well lived,
makes every yesterday
a memory of happiness
And every tomorrow
a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore,
to this day.

– Ancient Sandskrit Poem

Once in a vision
I came on some woods
And stood at a fork in the road.
My choices were clear,
Yet I froze with the fear of not knowing which way to go.
One road was simple
Acceptance of life
The other road
offered sweet peace.
When I made my decision
My vision became my release.

– Dan Fogelberg

A memory –
A remembrance of a pleasant time,
A sweet recollection,
A thoughtful reminiscence.

EXCHANGE STUDENT

I'm David Cohen, Claudia Rossas' host brother for this year. She came from Portugal in August and is living here as a member of my family until July.

Claudia fit right into the lives of the family, school, and the community. She enjoys going to Ketcham and has made many new friends here. She loves all sports, was on the volleyball team, and is active in the AFS club. This has helped her to meet many people and even to visit other schools. Once a week Claudia is a senior volunteer at St. Francis Hospital. She plans to go into nursing school in Portugal next year. Her American friends and family will miss her when she has to leave.

Claudia Rossas

SENIORS ABROAD

Alan Gordon

I spent last summer in France as an AFS exchange student. For two months I lived with a French family in the town of Mende, which is in Southern France. My host family had five children: three girls, ages 6, 11, and 15, and two boys, ages 16 and 18. The family spoke no English and I was therefore forced to speak French. Living with this family taught me a great deal about the French way of life, I enjoyed my summer, and I will remember the experience for years.

Pam Scheel: Fourth from the left

Instead of working last summer, I took part in the "AFS Americans Aboard" program. As an exchange student, I lived in two distinct regions of Spain. I spent July in the city of Barcelona and August in a small fishing village in the Basque Region of Spain near the border of France. It was a fantastic experience that I would recommend to anyone curious about other lifestyles.

SENIOR PROM COMMITTEE

In the process of planning the yearbook, many outstanding people have contributed a part of themselves, making this a very special book. This page is reserved to thank all of these people and let them know everything they did was appreciated:

— Mr. Conforti and Mr. Picciotti for always having confidence in us, for giving us moral support, for helping us however they could, and for just being the beautiful people they are. We toned it down, Mr. Picciotti!

— Brian Hawthorne, our Delmar representative, for spending time teaching us how to do everything, for giving us a hand when we needed one and for being our friend.

— The 1983 Portico Staff for giving up their free time, for being hard workers, and for being the most fantastic people I could have to work with.

— Tracy Grecco for always doing her best on the layout of the book, working quickly, for deadlines, and her dedication.

— Kristyn Hegener for becoming the fastest typist of us all, for working great under pressure, and hanging in there with me when the deadlines got rough.

— Anne Garrity for doing a great job on all the literary in the book and for being available to whatever needed to be done. You're the best, Annie!

— Matt Elman for providing us with the backbone of the book— all of our photography work.

— Mike Lewittes for taking care of the business area of the book, and always smiling when he was asked to do something.

— Suzy Syska for being a great Sherlock Holmes and identifying all the unknown faces.

— Sue Bernier for doing a fantastic job on the artwork in the book.

— Maria Sileno for handling the sales of the patrons for the book.

— John Kostro for his never ending words of encouragement, and the time he spent training us.

— The Parents of the 1983 Portico staff for supporting us, for helping us in their own way, and for just being our wonderful parents.

— The Teachers of the staff for understanding our tardiness or absence in class because of our involvement with the yearbook.

— Davis Studios for their high quality work on our senior and underclass sections.

— Mr. Brooks for obtaining the information needed for the dedication.

— Mr. Sackelose for all the team pictures he provided us with.

— And Everyone who contributed their effort to make the 1983 Portico a yearbook representing the good times at Roy C. Ketcham that we all will remember.

Thanks to all,
Annmarie Lazenka

DEDICATION

The Portico Staff of 1983 dedicate this book to three men who have made our years at Ketcham special. This one's for you —

Mr. Meier, you came to us as an assistant principal in 1968. You have involved us, the students of RCK, in your work and day-to day life. You have served as coach for track and football and as a class advisor.

Walter Meier
Assistant Principal

Mr. Connelly, you began your years as an assistant principal in 1971. Your dedication to youth is a very admirable trait and it has not gone unnoticed or unappreciated. You involved yourself with your students by teaching Biology and by advising the Afro-American, Biology, and Science clubs.

Thomas J. Connelly
Assistant Principal

Mr. Kenny, after spending many years with the Math Department, you came to us as an assistant principal in 1979. You have served as cheerleading and class advisors. Through your dedication, you gained our respect and admiration.

John F. Kenny
Assistant Principal

It takes special people to give so much of themselves to youth. Their jobs require them to come down hard at times but we must remember that they are only doing their jobs. They would not be here if they didn't care.

These three men have tough jobs and may sometimes go unnoticed. However, their dedication and concern has won them absolute respect.

They never hesitated when it came to "hearing the other side". They never failed to greet us with a smile or to assist us when their guidance was needed.

These men have been more than administrators. These men have become our friends and will always be remembered.

Keep The Spirit

Do not let these days be over and forgotten.
In these walls, through the years,
we have grown.
When we pass through these doors
for the last time,
We will take with us the beautiful memories we possess.
Keep the spirit!

Do not be discouraged by life's many questions.
In these walls, through the years,
you will discover yourself.
When you find yourself unsure of who you are becoming,
Be patient and you will lead
yourself to the answers.
Keep the spirit!

Do not step back and watch others live.
In these walls, through the years,
you must contribute.
When the days are long and the work seems endless, Take the time to become one with your friends.
Keep the spirit!

Do not let yourself be overcome by defeat.
In these walls, through the years,
you will learn failure and success.
When the opponents are strong and the competition fierce,
Strive toward your goal and,
in the end, you will be the victor.
Keep the spirit!

Do not be discouraged by those who don't succeed.
In these walls, through the years,
you have opened the minds of many.
Your influences and thoughts have molded our minds.
Look back on us,
you have helped us to grow.
Keep the spirit!

Do not ever forget these times we've shared.
In these wall, through the years,
we have become one.
And when the time comes for us to part,
Remember these days, but push on without hesitation.
Keep the spirit,
Forever!

—Anne Louise Garrity
